2nd RE-ISSUE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR "SPARTACUS" (1944)

From: MOLODOW

To: ISTANBUL

No: 186

29 Oct. 44

To LONDON. [i]

Reference No. 189. [a] We agree to your proposal. Let "SPARTACUS[SPARTAK]" [ii] remain at your place until [11 groups unrecovered]. The police have discovered that he is [B% in ISTANBUL]. What help does he need from us? The question of restoring his citizenship and quashing his sentence, which might get in the way of his returning to his native country, will apparently be resolved by a decree of the new government - [1 group unrecovered]. If not he should use his British contacts. We, of course, shall not raise any obstacles. Set "SPARTACUS" the following tasks:

1. To restore his business and political connections and achieve a firm position as a Liberal-Democrat (forbid contact with Communists and [Q% participation] [4 groups unrecovered]).
2. To bring to light overt and secret agent networks of foreign intelligence services [3 groups unrecovered] students, State officials, journalists and the like in his country, use [2 groups unrecovered] intelligence services against [12 groups unrecovered] (legally or illegally). Detailed instructions about "[Q% SPARTACUS]"

[16 groups unrecovered]
